WHAT IS H&I (“Hospitals & Institutions”) & WHAT DO THEY DO?

HISTORY

Ever since A.A.’s co-founders first stayed sober by carrying the A.A. message into hospitals, many other alcoholics have discovered the great value to their own sobriety of working with suffering alcoholics in treatment settings.

In 1934, Bill W. kept trying to help drunks in Towns Hospital in New York City. None of them seemed interested at that time, but Bill stayed sober. Dr. Bob worked with thousands of alcoholics at St. Thomas Hospital in Akron, Ohio. In 1939, Rockland State Hospital, a New York mental institution, was the site of one of our first A.A. hospital groups.

Today many A.A. meetings take place in inpatient and outpatient settings all over the world. Twelfth Stepping and sponsoring other alcoholics – where they are – has long been one of the most important and satisfying ways of keeping ourselves sober.

Service and treatment facilities used to be combined with service to corrections facilities under the title Institutions Committee. In 1977 the General Service Conference voted to dissolve its Institutions Committee and form two new committees, one on correctional facilities and one on treatment facilities.

PURPOSE

Treatment Committees are formed to coordinate the work of individual A.A. member and groups who are interested in carrying our message of recovery to alcoholics in treatment and outpatient settings, and to set up means of “bridging the gap” from the facility to an A.A. group in the individual’s community.

A Treatment Committee may function within the structure of a general service committee on the area or district level, or it may serve within the structure of a central office/intergroup. Prior to forming these committees, this Twelfth Step service is sometimes handled by an individual group or member. As A.A. groups grow in number in a community, experience suggests that a committee works more effectively.

In some parts of the country, A.A.s interested in carrying the message into treatment and correctional settings work together on Hospitals and Institutions (H&I) committees independent of, but in cooperation with, general service and intergroup committees. This structure also works well in areas where lines of communication between the various service entities remain open.

AMAZING PEOPLE INSIDE THE ROOMS

Written by Tony N., Pacific Region (Prison)

This an excerpt of Tony's letter taken from "Sharing From Behind The Walls" Spring, 2023

"Today I have exactly 60 days of clean and sober time. My name is Tony. And what is crazy is that I don't think about my sobriety at all. I am constantly thinking about the rooms and the beautiful and amazing people inside them. For the actual first time, I am really reading the Big Book. I just finished the story 'Our Southern Friend,' and I am about to read 'The Vicious Cycle' once I complete my letter writing for the day. I am finally starting to understand the true meaning of 'thy' will and not 'my' will. I have always believed in God, yet my trust has been in question for many, many years. Reading the Big Book is like finally finding a key to the lock or placing the elusive piece to that difficult puzzle. I now know that it is my purpose to help God's children, and we are all God's kids. I am to give back, even if that means spending the rest of my life in jail. I am okay with that because I finally understand that it is God's will and not mine. What gets me emotional, though, is my A.A. family. They didn't get the chance to see me make 30 + 60 days and may never see me again. They put so much time, effort, and energy into me, from Los Angeles to Sin City Las Vegas. More likely than not, they knew I was not ready. But when I was hungry, they fed me. They didn't care for my antics outside of the rooms, but when I was dirty, they gave me clothes and hygiene products, and in most cases, a place to change and sleep. I personally know that a lot (if not all) of them were tired of my refusal to let go of people and a past that had dragged me through the doors of A.A. in the first place. Worst of all, they will never know how much I really respect and love them from the bottom of my heart.”

A Brief History of Celebrating Sobriety

Excerpts from article written Wooden U Recover

There is evidence that early-on many people in A.A. carried personal mementos to remind themselves of the importance of their sobriety. Clarence H. Snyder “The Home Brewmeister” had his last drink on February 11, 1938 and he carried a medallion (pictured left) made from a silver dollar and a watch fob until his death on March 22, 1984. The 46 holes in the silver dollar represent 46 years of sobriety. His story “Home Brewmeister” can be found on page 297 of the Big Book, Third Edition.

While not officially a part of Alcoholics Anonymous in any way, the chip system is used throughout the country, and the world to commemorate special milestones in recovery. Various medallions are used to signify and mark varying lengths of abstinence from alcohol. These special tokens, usually about the size of a poker chip, are often given to those in recovery by their home group, sponsors (spiritual mentors), or even special friends or family members. Their intent is both to celebrate the accomplishment and to remind the recipient of their daily commitment to their personal recovery.

It is not the medallions themselves that keep recovering individuals sober. The importance is in the meaning behind the tokens. As those in recovery receive special tokens for one month, then two, then three months, and so on - the medallions generate a sense of pride for fulfilling their commitment to their recovery. Often a simple glance at a special token can provide motivation to continue to remain abstinent even when the thought of drinking arises.

While the A.A. chip system is of major importance to many, it represents but a small part of what is offered by Alcoholics Anonymous, and those fellowships modeled after its 12 step program of recovery. The lifesaving program and its “nearly miraculous” success rate is attributed, in part, to the power of one alcoholic helping another.

Looking Within

“Made a searching a fearless moral inventory of ourselves.”

Twelve Steps & Twelve Traditions page 42

Step Four is the vigorous and painstaking effort to discover what the liabilities in each of us have been, and are. I want to find exactly how, when, and where my natural desires have warped me. I wish to look squarely at the unhappiness this has caused others and myself. By discovering what my emotional deformities are, I can move toward their correction. Without a willing and persistent effort to do this, there can be little sobriety or contentment for me.

To resolve ambivalent feelings, I need to feel a strong and helpful sense of myself. Such an awareness doesn't happen overnight, and no one's self-awareness is permanent. Everyone has the capacity for growth, and for self-awareness, through an honest encounter with reality. When I don't avoid issues but meet them directly, always trying to resolve them, they become fewer and fewer.
