

Alcoholics Anonymous - Public Information

AA's Public Information committee presents accurate information about AA to the public, schools, media, courts, and health professionals.

We answer one question: what AA is and how to get help. AA is self-supporting, declines outside contributions, and takes no position on outside issues.

For more information about the local AA in your area, scan the QR code, call or email.

email: info@aascv.org

website: aascv.org

phone: (661) 250-9922